My Darling Precious Wife:-

Just received your darling letter of Monday, and honey love, you sure did make me happy with news of mondear. I sure am glad that she is improving so splendidly and feel confident that, please God, she will be out of the hospital within the 10 days. I told Uncle Morris the good news and he sure was happy. Darling wife, don't forget to keep me posted as to how she is getting on, also how poor Rose is keeping everything. She sure must be suffering.

Honey love, about the store, we won't be able to do anything until after June 1st, as that is the time the present occupant will move. The place is very suitable for a drug store, but there are a great many other places. We can't do anything until June 1st, and that will be after you are here, so when you come, we will be able to decide, as, to be frank with you, Uncle Morris want to wait until you come. The rent is only about 150 or $25 for the whole place, so that needn't worry us, but as you are not here, I'm lost, so far as the drug business is concerned, so I figured that it would be best to wait until you come. In the meanwhile, let keep my eyes open for something, so that we will be able to see our way clear. I am certain that an investment of this kind will be splendid and mondear won't have to put in more than $200.00, so that it won't take her last penny. Well, Sweetie, we will wait on that until you come.

As for the checks, darling, whatever you do will be alright. By the way, Lovie, I forgot to write to the boys jim to send for the books. Will you please write to F. W. Lacey, 244 Fifth Ave., N. Y. C., N. Y. and tell him his client can call for the books at 70 Somers St. In the mean time, just put the books in the box helter skelter.

Honey love, here's a bit of good news. I am to start on Friday night to take care of Meistein's book which means $10.00 a little more, each month. I sure did want to land that. The Pinsteins are helping me a good deal, I must admit. I followed your advice, Toot, and took some calomel, and feel much better after it. My wife me is some doctor, eh?

Honey love, I me do love you! Love you with all my heart and soul. Toots, darling, honestly and truly, I can't write how much I love you. I must show you, sweetheart, and show you I will, all the time. Believe me, lovie, just you wait until I meet you at the station. Darling, please God, just 2 weeks from to-day, you will be leaving N. Y. Oh, Tootsie mine, how happy we will be together, eh, love?

Must close now, darling, with all my love, hugs, and kisses to you, sweetheart wife mine,

Ever lovingly your hubby

Joe
